

Oak Village, , London, NW5 4QN

Asking Price £1,399,999

A particularly stylish three bedroom house, in the idyllic residential area of Oak Village. The property has been lovingly maintained by the present owner, and features all of the period character that you would expect to find of a house in this location. There is plenty of natural light throughout, a double volume reception and a good sized separate kitchen. To the rear is a charming courtyard garden, and in addition there is access from one of the bedrooms to a private south facing roof garden, offering attractive views over the rooftops of Oak Village. The property is within easy walking distance of the Parliament Hill entrance to Hampstead Heath, the lido, and the 'Outstanding' rated Gospel Oak Primary school. We are pleased to be offering this beautiful home, CHAIN FREE.
