Alma Street, Kentish Town, NW5 3DJ

£1,645,000

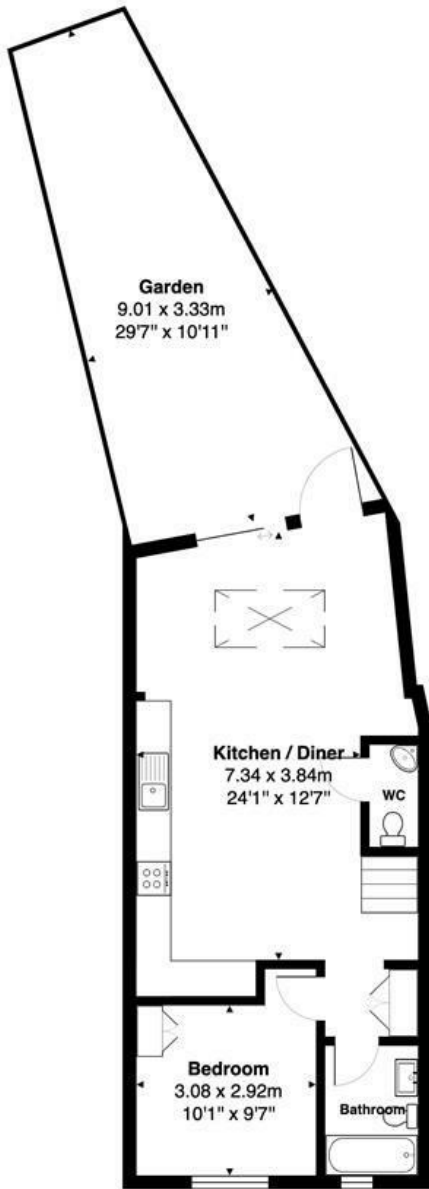

This beautifully designed three bedroom Victorian house sits on a quiet residential street, occupying an end of terrace position. The accommodation throughout is well planned, and thoughtfully arranged to suit a young family. There is a charming south west facing rear garden, along with a private roof terrace from the first floor. Alma Street is one of Kentish Town's most attractive roads and is set just west of the High Street within the Inkerman Conservation Area, accessible to an array of local schools including the Collège Français Bilingue de Londres and many other nearby nursery and primary schools.
