Asking Price £1,795,000

An opportunity seldom available to purchase a modern detached house designed by the architects Dinerman, Davison & Hillman and built in the 1960's. The house is nestled at the end of a cul-de-sac which is approached via View Road in the Kenwood area of Highgate and is within easy reach of both Highgate Village and the Underground Station. The house also has potential to extend to incorporate the garage (subject to consent). The accommodation is arranged over two floors and comprises: 4 bedrooms, master with en-suite bathroom, family shower room, lounge, dining room, study, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, guest cloakroom, garage with further off street parking, and southerly facing garden.
