

Jacksons Lane, London, N6 5SR

£1,425,000

An attractive and highly desirable modern Town House built in the nineteen sixties coming to the market for the first time. The property affords highly versatile accommodation arranged mainly over three floors. The light and airy accommodation benefits from 2/3 large bedrooms (originally built as four bedrooms), with a garden room, and a spacious double aspect reception room which occupies a substantial part of the first floor. As with the ground floor, this first floor reception room also provides direct access to the large tiered rear garden. The property is in a very convenient position being just a short amble to Highgate (Northern Line) Underground Station and is within easy reach of Highgate Village.
