Nestled in the heart of the historic town of Penryn, this attractive two bedroom cottage offers character and convenience. Just a short distance from independent shops and welcoming local pubs, and the vibrant town of Falmouth.

Inside, a small entrance hallway leads into a uniquely shaped open-plan lounge and dining area with original features and an adjoining kitchen.

Split level stairs lead to the first floor, where you will find two generously sized bedrooms along with a family bathroom with a shower over the bath.
